Easter Revision Week

"Thanks for the routine of the week and all I learnt academically"

YEAR 11 BOY

When it comes to revising for exams, good intentions aren't always enough. Excellent preparation requires organisation and self-discipline. Don't revise at home alone – come and join us!

The Easter Revision Week run by Gloddaeth Holidays provides the structure and supervision to make study effective and enjoyable. The Rev'd Pete Gaskell leads a team of experienced independent school teachers and volunteers to provide a friendly and supportive environment.

Revise...

for up to six hours a day. Experienced teachers are on hand to offer personalised tuition and guidance with exam and study techniques. Each student will meet daily with a personal revision co-ordinator to discuss plans and progress. Optional seminars are offered throughout the week.

Relax...

spend afternoons relaxing or getting active with a whole host of activities on offer: Swimming Pool. Tennis. The Art Studio. Table Tennis. Badminton. Pitch & Putt Golf. 5-a-side football tournament. Volleyball. Table Football. Touch Rugby. Great Gloddaeth Bake Off. Glod's very own widgames and more...

Rethink...

explore the Christian faith and its relevance for today through an informal daily meeting with a short talk from the Bible which everyone attends, and also a small discussion group.

Cost

The total cost of the week is £525

All inclusive. Bursaries are available. Get in touch for more information.
